GREAT BRITAIN.

THE DUBLIN UNIVERSITY BILL. London, May 22.—In the house of commons last night the Irish university bill was considered. After an animated discussion, during which the Scotch members strongly opposed the bill. Debate was adjourned at the suggestion of Sir Stafford Northcote, who urged that the house required more light on the scheme, particularly as to whether any modification was possible guarding against the grant being applied to the endowment of religious teaching. The chancellor admitted that it was desirable to provide for an extension of the university system in Ireland.

LABOR.

Newcastle on-Tyne, May 22.—All the pits in the Durham miner's union will be working to-day.

The coal owners in Germany took advantage of the miner's strike here, to push German coal into all the Baltic ports, and it is thought a considerable portion of the ordinary summer trade in coal from the Tyne has been forestalled.

TERIBLE CALAMITY.

London, May 22.—In heaving anchor on the transport steamer China in Symon's Bay, two men were killed and nineteen wounded.

GERMANY.

PROTECTIVE DUTIES.

Berlin, May 22.—In the German reichstag yesterday Bismarck made a two hours' speech in support of the grain duties. He strove to show that the imposition of duties by bettering the purses of the agricultural class, would give an impetus to industrial activity. England, France, Belgium and the Netherlands were cited in proof thereof. Bismarck disclaimed all intention of seeking to increase the imperial exchequer by a corn tax. All he desired was to do justice to his long-suffering countrymen by removing to the frontier, in form of a consumption duty, a part of the direct taxes.

The debate was adjourned until Friday. The government's proposals will probably be adopted. The landed interest is now urging the protection of wool.

THE REICHSTAG.

In the election of Zeidleritz, conservative, president of the reichstag, the liberals abstained from voting. Of 200 votes cast Zeidleritz received 195. This vote, it is believed, must be taken as an indication of the future course of the reichstag for a period it would be rush to set limits to.

THE FINANCIAL CRISIS.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS. London, May 22.—The Frankfurter Zeitung states that the Rotterdamche Handelsvereeniging Trading Company loses 7,000,000 florins by the failure of the Africanische Handelsvereeniging and will be compelled to ask the indulgence of their creditors. It proposes to pay them 41 percent bonds. If this compromise is refused the company will be obliged to solicit a judicial respite, which is allowed by the Dutch law to a debtor able to prove the existence of assets. It is said the Antwerp banks will suffer by the embarrassments of the Rotterdamche Handelsvereeniging.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, May 22.—Mr. McDonald asked leave to introduce a bill regulating the use of the army, of which he gave notice Tuesday.

Mr. Edmunds asked if the bill was intended to enlarge or diminish the existing constitutional powers of the executive in the use of the army.

Mr. McDonald said it properly regulated the president's powers under the constitution. The bill would allow for itself whether it enlarged or restricted those powers.

Mr. Edmunds wished to know if in his opinion its effect was to repeal or only to define existing laws and if he thought any legislation was necessary.

Mr. McDonald said the first three sections under the title of "insurance," as they appear in the revised statutes, were in his mind in offering the bill. He desired to give his views at length on Monday.

Mr. Edmunds thought no such legislation was necessary. It did not look to the abatement of any fault in existing laws, but he would not object to the bill being introduced. The bill was received and laid on the table and Mr. McDonald gave notice that he would call it up Monday and speak thereon.

Messrs. Wallace and Edmunds gave notice that they intended to speak on the same subject, after the senator from Indiana.

HOUSE.

Mr. Goode introduced a bill authorizing the secretary of the navy to place vessels and hulks at the disposal of the commissioners of quarantine or other proper persons at the ports of the United States. Referred.

The house then resumed its consideration of the bill to repeal and amend the laws relating to the transfer of cases from state to federal courts.

The Dublin University Bill Discussed in the House of Commons.

Resumption of Work in the English Coal Mining Districts.

An Accident on the Steamer China Kills Two Men and Wounds Nineteen.

GREAT BRITAIN. THE DUBLIN UNIVERSITY BILL. London, May 22.—In the house of commons last night the Irish university bill was considered. After an animated discussion, during which the Scotch members strongly opposed the bill. Debate was adjourned at the suggestion of Sir Stafford Northcote, who urged that the house required more light on the scheme, particularly as to whether any modification was possible guarding against the grant being applied to the endowment of religious teaching. The chancellor admitted that it was desirable to provide for an extension of the university system in Ireland.

LABOR. Newcastle-on-Tyne, May 22.—All the pits in the Durham miner's union will be working to-day.

The coal owners in Germany took advantage of the miner's strike here, to push German coal into all the Baltic ports, and it is thought a considerable portion of the ordinary summer trade in coal from the Tyne has been forestalled.

GERMANY. PROTECTIVE DUTIES. Berlin, May 22.—In the German reichstag yesterday Bismarck made a two hours' speech in support of the grain duties. He strove to show that the imposition of duties by bettering the purses of the agricultural class, would give an impetus to industrial activity. England, France, Belgium and the Netherlands were cited in proof thereof. Bismarck disclaimed all intention of seeking to increase the imperial exchequer by a corn tax. All he desired was to do justice to his long-suffering countrymen by removing to the frontier, in form of a consumption duty, a part of the direct taxes.

The debate was adjourned until Friday. The government's proposals will probably be adopted. The landed interest is now urging the protection of wool.

THE REICHSTAG.

In the election of Zeidritz, conservative, president of the reichstag, the liberals abstained from voting. Of 200 votes cast Zeidritz received 195. This vote, it is believed, must be taken as an indication of the future course of the reichstag for a period it would be rash to set limits to.

THE FINANCIAL CRISIS.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS. London, May 22.—The Frankfurter Zeitung states that the Rotterdamche Handelsvereeniging Trading Company loses 7,000,000 florins by the failure of the Africanische Handelsvereeniging and will be compelled to seek the indulgence of their creditors. It proposes to pay them 41 percent bonds. If this compromise is refused the company will be obliged to solicit a judicial respite, which is allowed by the Dutch law to a debtor able to prove the existence of assets. It is said the Antwerp banks will suffer by the embarrassments of the Rotterdamche Handelsvereeniging.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE. Washington, May 22.—Mr. McDonald asked leave to introduce a bill regulating the use of the army, of which he gave notice Tuesday.

Mr. Edmunds asked if the bill was intended to enlarge or diminish the existing constitutional powers of the executive in the use of the army.

Mr. McDonald said it properly regulated the president's powers under the constitution. The bill would show for itself whether it enlarged or restricted those powers.

Mr. Edmunds wished to know if in his opinion its effect was to repeal or only to define existing laws, and if he thought any legislation was necessary.

Mr. McDonald said the first three sections under the title of "insurrection," as they appear in the revised statutes, were in his mind in offering the bill. He desired to give his views at length on Monday.

Mr. Edmunds thought no such legislation was necessary. It did not look to the abatement of any fault in existing laws, but he would not object to the bill being introduced. The bill was received and laid on the table and Mr. McDonald gave notice that he would call it up Monday and speak thereon.

Messrs. Wallace and Edmunds gave notice that they intended to speak on the same subject, after the senator from Indiana.

The senate then took up the bill to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious and infectious diseases.

HOUSE. Mr. Goode introduced a bill authorizing the secretary of the navy to place vessels and bulks at the disposal of the commissioners of quarantine or other proper persons at the ports of the United States. Referred.

The republicans refused to vote on the demand for the previous question, thereby blocking business. Various propositions were thereupon suggested by both sides but were not acceded to.

Future of a Bank. New York, May 22.—The Broadway Savings Bank closed its doors this morning in accordance with a decision reached by the directors at a late hour last night, and made an assignment to John Dierberger.

Congressional Summary.

Wednesday, May 21.—HOUSE—A bill was introduced providing for an international exhibition of art, manufactures and products at New York city. The Warner silver bill was again taken up, considered by sections, and an amendment adopted providing that the charges for postage shall be an amount equal to the difference between the market value of the bullion and the legal value of the coin. SENATE—The senate was not in session to-day.

BLAINE's last speech in the senate was a dead failure. He seems to have lost his hold upon the public, and will have to sustain another sunstroke or do something to attract public attention.

THE importance of the collection of vital statistics in this city is beginning to be appreciated. The suggestion of the board of health for an amendment to the revised ordinances providing for the registration of births, is a good one and should be adopted by the council.

THE St. Louis Republican has at last found out what the policy of the republican party is to be. It says:

The stalwart leaders have laid out a very easy policy for the republican party, and it is simply to oppose everything and anything the democrats advocate. No matter what is proposed the democrats are to be damned if they do and damned if they don't. If they refuse appropriations in the event of Hayes sticking to his veto of the bills repealing the political legislation, they are to be denounced as rebels and traitors; if on the other hand they pass the appropriation bills without the political amendments they are to be sneered at as cowards. That is an easy course to follow, but it ought to show to the country that the republican party is fighting for nothing but the spoils of office.

SENATOR McDONALD'S BILL.

THE SENTINEL's Washington telegrams have mentioned the fact that Senator McDONALD, of this state, has introduced a bill in reference to the use of the army by the executive, and repealing the federal election laws. The following is the full text of the bill:

An act authorizing the employment of the militia and land and naval forces of the United States in certain cases and for other purposes.
Be it enacted, etc., That whenever the United States shall be invaded or be in imminent danger of invasion, or when the laws of the United States shall be opposed or the execution thereof obstructed in any state by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings or by the power invested in the marshals by this act, an official information shall be furnished thereof by a judge of the supreme court, or the judge of any circuit or district court of the United States sitting or exercising judicial authority within the limits of any such state, or in case of any insurrection or domestic violence in any state against the government thereof, and the legislature of such state, or the executive; when the legislature cannot be convened, has made application therefor, it shall be lawful for the president of the United States to call forth such number of the militia of the state or states most convenient to the place of danger or the scene of action as he may deem necessary to repel such invasion or to repress such insurrection or to put down domestic violence in such state, and the use of the militia so called forth may be continued, if necessary, until the expiration of thirty days after the commencement of the next session of congress.

Sec. 2. In all cases of invasion, insurrection or domestic violence or obstruction to laws, either to the United States or to any individual state or territory, where it is lawful for the president of the United States to call forth the militia for the purpose of repelling such invasion or suppressing such insurrection or domestic violence, or of causing the laws to be duly executed, it shall be lawful for him to employ the militia for that purpose, and of the land and naval forces of the United States as he shall judge proper, having first observed the precautions in law in that respect, but he shall not be lawful to employ any part of the army of the United States as a posse comitatus or otherwise for the purpose of execution except in such cases and under such circumstances as such employment of said force may be expressly authorized by the constitution or by act of congress.

Sec. 3. The marshals of the United States in their respective districts shall have power to execute all lawful processes and precepts to them directed and issued under authority of the United States, and in execution thereof shall have power to command all necessary assistance.

Sec. 4. All laws heretofore enacted which are in conflict with any of the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws heretofore passed by the congress of the United States regulating the manner of holding elections for representatives in congress are hereby repealed.

THE QUININE MONOPOLY.

Among all infamous features of the protective tariff with which this country is cursed there is none more objectionable than the tariff on manufactured quinine, which is a tax on every consumer of that great specific, for the sole benefit of a couple of Philadelphia manufacturing firms, which have grown immensely wealthy through the operation of this tax.

The consumption of quinine is well nigh universal, but the consumer has to pay a tax to the Philadelphia manufacturers who, by some means—we need not inquire how—have managed to have the duty retained year after year in spite of the popular clamor against it. The New York Evening Post, that steady and able defender of free trade, gives some facts which show the enormity of this outrage upon the people of this country. The Post says:

We consume in this country about 1,200,000 ounces of quinine each year, enhanced in price 60 cents an ounce, or $720,000, by the tariff, and at least nine-tenths of the $720,000 go to two firms of drug makers in Philadelphia, commonly supposed to be worth $100,000 each. 2. In the public hospitals of this city there have been standing orders to the doctors that in every possible case where a substitute for quinine could be used money should be saved by using it. 3. The government, that is to say the people at large, get no return worth mentioning from the duties on the drug. In the light of these facts alone the man speaks the language of folly who can say that the interests of the Philadelphia blood taxers are worth a moment's consideration. We could allow their workmen to go into the streets and murder a score of men apiece far better, so far as the loss of life is concerned, than we can allow the interests of them and their workmen to be subserved as it is now by a mortality list only limited by the bounds of a country of 45,000,000 of people over which the iniquitous tax extends its death-dealing influence.

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

A Veteran Statesman on the Hayes Votes—An Issue that Unites the Democratic Party of the Nation.

(Utica (N. Y.) Special to the Chicago Times.)

"What, in your opinion, will be the effect of President Hayes's veto of the army interference bill?"
Mr. Seymour said: "It will unite the democratic party and lift it out of the troubles springing from the differences of opinion about candidatures and finances. The democrats of all shades and sections will be of one mind about military interference at elections.
Correspondent—How far will the president's message help his position?"
Governor—The country will look at the attitude and not at the language of the president. It is now clear that Hayes is not willing to give up the power of the sword in politics. There is a difference of opinion about the strength of parties, but, assuming that they are about equal, how does the case stand? The republicans have an army of 100,000 office holders and the army engaged on the public buildings and works. They have the power of collecting and paying out the vast revenues of the country. The courts are filled by judges of their selection and faith, and their marshals and other officers can harass innocent persons and control the votes of those who are charged with wrong doing. They

DEMAND THE ARMY ALSO.

Is this a fair or safe state of things? Mr. Hayes says he is opposed to the use of the army at the polls, but he brings out no plan to carry out his avowed views. He simply cavils at the bills of congress. His veto makes the issue of the next presidential canvass. It unites the democratic party upon a grave question. There is a deep feeling on this subject in the north as well as the south. Repeated attempts have been made to overawe

THE VOTERS OF NEW YORK.

The first was in 1864. The republicans cry against the ways of Gen. Butler in Massachusetts, but they thought he was the man to put at the head of the army over the elections in New York. I issued an order to sheriffs and the police that no soldiers should be allowed to show themselves at a single poll, and that against any interference they should put forth the full force of the law and call out the power of the districts. The election passed off quietly, as

NO SOLDIERS SHOWED THEMSELVES at the place of voting. The advocates of military interference are the most violent of those who keep up sectional hate. They are the men of whom it has been well said that they are full of fight now because they did not fight when they had a chance. The senator who first called for blood in 1861 was the first to run away from the field when blood was flowing. He now grows fierce again. I do not think it is true, as has been charged, that he broke the lines of our troops by his retreat, but it is certain that his anxiety to did not encourage our soldiers in the fight. I do not think the count will follow the lead of those who set up the strife which others are to fight out, maybe, at the cost of their lives. The democrats will feel as one on the issue. They see that it means that fraud is to be upheld at the polls.

Gov.—Do you think that this question should be put before the president and the people upon its merits? Gov.—I think it will be wise to put a bill that would put this question to the president distinctly on its merits so that there would be no room for the pretext that other things than merits were to be considered. If true, as the president says, that does not wish to have the military interfere, let him frame a bill that will reach that end.

The governor seems fully impressed with the belief that the subject of military interference at elections will be the real issue upon which the next presidential canvass will be fought.

THE THREE LINKS.

Thirty-Second Annual Communication Grand Encampment I. O. O. F.—Reports of the Officers—Satisfactory Condition of the Order.

(Indianapolis News, 20th.)

The thirty-second semi-annual communication of the grand encampment I. O. O. F. began in grand lodge hall this morning, J. F. Wallick, M. W. grand patriarch, presiding, and all the grand officers, except Grand Sentinel Toler, being present.

The grand patriarch announced the regular standing committees, with the following chairmen:

On the part of the Patriarchal Order—P. G. Underwood, Grand Secretary and Finance and Accounts—P. G. Rep. J. A. Wildman.
Subordinate Encampment, Constitution and Laws—P. C. P. T. H. Malott.
Grievances and Appeals—P. G. Rep. C. P. Toler.
Mileage and Per diem—P. C. P. Joseph Pedigo.

J. E. Barrett, from the committee on credentials, made the report, and the representatives in waiting were introduced by Grand Senior Warden Richard Berger, and instructed by C. H. Helfer, warden appointed sentinel pro Toler, in the absence of representative Toler.

REPORTS OF THE OFFICERS.

The reports of the officers having been printed and distributed, the reading of the report of the grand patriarch, John E. Wallick, grand patriarch, reports that of the encampments delinquent six months ago, Nicholson at Columbia City, Atlantic at Petersburg, Cooper at Young America, Oakland City, Boone at Walton, and Cedar at Auburn, have been restored and resumed active work. The following are still delinquent, and their charters should be surrendered: Jordan at Newtown, Wheeling, Middletown, Simai at Pendleton, Marshall at Galveston, Kirkin, Plymouth, Dunkirk and Grove City at Crown Point, McCarty encampment at Waveland, and Enoch encampment at Versailles have surrendered their charters. Two committees reported to the grand patriarch sustaining the action of Jerusalem encampment No. 1, New Albany in refusing benefits to J. H. Aston, and these reports the G. P. recommends be adopted. The paper earnestly recommends a reduction of the minimum benefits from $3 to $1 a week—urging it as necessary to the continued prosperity of the order and to the existence of weak encampments. Among the decisions of the past term are these: A brother can not be admitted to the encampment when he is not square on the books of the lodge; if a brother becomes delinquent to the lodge after the G. P. degree has been conferred, the R. P. degree may be conferred before he has settled arrears with the lodge.

The report of the grand scribe, B. F. Foster, shows a better condition of the order than in 1878. Two encampments have been suspended, leaving 141 in existence; members at last report, 5,475; accessions, 131; abatements, 242; number now on the rolls, 5,364; past chief patriarchs, 1,721; past high priests, 1,244; resources of encampments, $54,316.10; receipts, $9,610.94; patriarchs relieved, 292; widowed families relieved, 6; expense for relief and charity, $4,486.24; total expenses of encampments, $8,390.92. The receipts of the grand encampment have been $1,015.81; expenditures, $1,005.84; balance in treasury, $2,260.08.

T. P. Hughey, grand treasurer, makes a showing that agrees with the report of the grand scribe.

The troubles between W. M. French and Metropolitan encampment No. 5 of this city having been compromised, the matter was referred to the committee on grievances and appeals for ratification.

On motion of Rep. Cooper, the amendments to the general laws offered at last annual communication, that one communication a year only be held, terms of representatives lengthened to twelve months, and that no mileage or per diem be paid by the grand encampment were referred to a special committee consisting of representatives Cooper, Monroe and Wise to report at once. On report of the committee on the state of the order, the charters of delinquent encampments were ordered to be arrested. Also that the minimum rate of benefits be reduced from $3 to $1 per week.

Francisworth encampment expect to begin work in June on a new hall at Lewisville, Hancock county, and its books, papers, etc., P. G. P. Barrett's bonds were ordered to remain there till the encampment is ready to resume work.

(Indianapolis News, 21st.)

At the afternoon session of the grand encampment yesterday, the following nominations for election at the next communication were made: Grand Patriarch—S. B. Halley, of New Albany.

TROVERSY BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVE ASTON AND JERUSALEM ENCAMPMENT NO. 1.

referred to in the grand patriarch's report, was confirmed and approved. At 2 o'clock the unwritten work of the order was exemplified by P. G. Representative McQuiddy, followed by the nomination of officers for election next November.

OFFICERS' REPORT.

Enoch Cox, grand master, submitted a lengthy report of the past six months. He says the committee appointed to revise and prepare a digest of the laws and decisions of the grand lodge will be ready to place their manuscript in the hands of the printer by the next communication. Since the last communication dispensations have been granted for new lodges at Fairview, Switzerland county; Monroe City, Knox county; Royal Center, Cass county; Falmouth, Fayette county; Glenwood, Rush county; Kent, Jefferson county; Cutler, Carroll county.

The following have been instituted by charter: Amity lodge No. 562, Goodland, Newton county. Algeris lodge No. 563, Algiers, Pike county. Ivy lodge No. 564, New Goshen, Vigo county.

Sandborn lodge 464, at Sandborn, Knox county, and Empire No. 500 have surrendered their charters. Charters have been sent out for Rebekah lodges at the following places: Lagrange, Lagrange county; Miami, Miami county; Brookville, Franklin county; Bloomingburg, Fulton county; Pleasantville, Sullivan county, of which the last three have been instituted.

The grand master recommended a grave consideration of the question of dues and benefits, believing that the ratio of dues to benefits is as low as can be maintained. Besides other matters he recommends that the general law be so amended as to enable the lodges to invest the orphans' fund at less than the legal rate of interest; so as to re-admit dropped members of the Rebekah degree lodges upon payment of a year's dues or such sum as may be deemed proper; so as to conform to the laws of the grand lodge of the United States, which do not allow a lodge to suspend payment of weekly benefits. Reference is made to the Wanatah gift enterprise advertised last winter for the benefit of the lodge at that point. A proclamation denouncing it as opposed to the principles of Odd Fellowship was issued by the grandmaster, and the project was soon afterward abandoned.

A permanent committee on the Rebekah degree lodges is recommended, in order that the delicate and intricate questions that will arise between the two branches of the order may be settled by appropriate legislation, and to foster the new branch.

The report of the grand secretary, B. F. Foster, congratulates the order on the very slight loss of membership, indicating a return of prosperity to the lodges, most of which are in a sound and healthy condition.

The following is an exhibit of the work of relief as gathered from the statistics of lodge reports: During the term 1,564 brothers and 209 widowed families have been relieved. The sum of $24,955.55 has been paid for the relief of brothers; $3,085.18 for the relief of widowed families; $141 for educating orphans; $6,443.17 for burying the dead, and $4,410.69 for other charitable purposes. Total, $39,945.59.

The number of lodges instituted during the term, 10, is the largest number in any term for several years past. There are 529 effective lodges, a net increase of eight, with 24,302 members, a decrease of 51; rejections, 55; ladies receiving degree of Rebekah, 221. The resources of the lodges are $1,251,051.59; receipts, $100,978.86; expenses other than relief, $45,049.39; orphans' fund, $293,099.93. The receipts of the grand lodge have been $8,546, expenditures, $6,322.76; balance in treasury, $8,609.51. There is still due from subordinate lodges, $2,298.39, with a credit of $202.93.

Since the organization of the Rebekah degree lodges, 196 charters have been issued, but in 1877 only 26 lodges were effective. Since the beginning of the present year advances have been received from over 80 lodges now at work. Fifty lodges that reported up to December 31st, 1878, show 1,178 brother members and 1,159 sister members; amount of resources, $4,733.08; paid for relief, $356.04.

Since last communication $10.55 of subscriptions to the Moxton fund have been received, and $5.50 of yellow fever fund.

The report of the grand treasurer, T. P. Hughey, coincides with the financial part of that of the secretary. It further shows $40,409.61 assets, besides a balance of $3,639.87 of the grand lodge fund on hand. There is an indebtedness of $13,350 due on the building.

The grand lodge then adjourned.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.

A Large Amount of Important Business Transacted—Nominations for Officers—Standing Committee, Etc.

In the State Medical Society on Tuesday, papers were read as follows:

"Treatment of cataneous biliary fistula," Dr. G. W. H. Kemper." "Death of a patient while under the influence of chloroform," Dr. Vinnege of Lafayette.

The president's address was read. The doctor advocated the sanitary protection of the people by law. He noticed the patent medicine evil, and warned the profession against it. Quacks came in for their share of notice, and were roundly scored by the speaker. A strict medical law, governing the practice of physicians, he deemed an imperative necessity. Various other reforms were urged.

The address was referred to the committee on publication.

Yesterday 331 delegates were present. Dr. Hibberd, chairman of the committee to whom the secretary's report was referred, reported the following recommendations: That hereafter the society will not recognize the delegates of any county society that is not complete in its legal incorporation. That the copies of the transactions be exchanged freely with those societies desirous of exchanging. That copies be sold to outsiders at $1 apiece. That the representation of district delegates is contrary to the constitution. That the society adopt the resolution offered yesterday by Dr. Wiest, regarding the adoption of the metric system.

Report adopted without debate. Resolutions of respect to the late Dr. Morris, of Indianapolis, were adopted.

The election of officers resulted: President—J. R. W. Richmond. Vice President—J. D. Galt, Lawrenceburg. Secretary—G. W. Wooten, Indianapolis. Recording Secretary—J. W. Burton, Mitchell. Treasurer—G. W. H. Kemper, Muncie. Librarian—F. J. Van Vorhis, Indianapolis.

On motion of Dr. Wiest, the chair appointed a committee of three to consider the advisability of making some changes in the health commission. The committee was named as follows: Drs. Helm, Laughlin and Andrews.

The president announced the following standing committees: On Arrangements—Dr. E. Elder, chairman; Drs. T. N. Bryan, J. A. Eastman, J. R. Featherstone and J. A. Sutcliffe. On Finance—Dr. A. M. Vickery, chairman; Drs. G. C. Smythe, H. B. Woodburn, J. W. S. Gerrish and E. W. King. Publication—Dr. A. Maxwell, chairman; Drs. J. L. Thompson, John Chambers, G. V. Wooten and C. E. Walker. On the part of the county society, who was expelled from the county society for gross unprofessional conduct, was expelled from the state society.

Dr. Beck was appointed as chairman of a committee on necrology to report next year.

Dr. J. L. Thompson, now read an article on "Indispensable operations on the eye."

In conclusion of the morning's session, Mr. Hall of Philadelphia, spoke in favor of a resolution requesting congress to maintain a protective duty on quinine. He was of opinion that quinine cannot be manufactured in this country if the protective tariff is removed. A resolution looking to that end was introduced by Dr. Hibberd, but owing to the length of some of the speeches made thereon the society adjourned until afternoon, without action.

Crop Prospects in the Northwest.

The Inter-Ocean of Monday publishes an analysis of about three hundred letters which it has received in the past three or four days, which represent the condition of the growing crops throughout the northwestern states. In Illinois winter and spring wheat have a trifle larger acreage than last year, with a good promise. Oats are a decreased acreage and not in very good condition. Corn is mostly planted and with a larger acreage than last season. In Wisconsin the small grains are rather backward, owing to dry weather, and in some places wheat is rather thin, but the acreage is increased over last year. In Minnesota dry weather impaired the wheat prospects for a while, but recent copious showers have brought it into excellent condition, and with the largely increased area sown especially on hitherto unbroken soil, there will be an unusually large yield. Corn will be a large crop. Oats are rather inferior in quality and condition. Dakota shows that a largely increased amount of wheat and oats are in splendid condition. Substantially the same may be said of Kansas. On the whole, the prospect is very flattering.

The young man who by mistake swallowed a whole bottle of Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills, is out again. He says he feels rather "pale" but otherwise is all right. He will, however, follow the directions next time.

Judge Dillon Resigns.

(Special to the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

St. Louis, May 14.—Judge Dillon, of the eighth judicial district, which includes the states of Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota, has accepted an offer to preside over the New York Columbia College law school. The salary to be paid him is said to be very handsome, though the judge declines to mention the exact figures, and in addition he is to be allowed the privilege of practicing in chambers and publishing books on law, in which work he has already achieved considerable success.

BRAIN WORKERS.

Clergymen, lawyers, physicians, orators, and all classes of brain workers will find the use of Dr. Price's Floral Riches Cologne greatly refreshing. The handkerchief wetted in it and applied to the face occasionally, will please the sense of smell, prove a stimulus to the circulation, inducing to vigorous action.

The Ins and the Outs.

(Columbia City Post.)

The new city council of Fort Wayne re-elected all the old city officers but one. Once more peace reigns supreme in political circles of that city. The "ins" have it and the "outs" will bide their time.

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constipated, sometimes alternate with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant.

The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it.
In fact, he distrusts every remedy.
Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

JAPAN.

A Batch of Interesting Information from the Far Away Empire.

Yokohama, April 23.—Another change in the vacillating plans of the Japanese government respecting the treaty revision of two years ago has been determined upon, the intention being to negotiate new treaties with several capital powers, beginning with the United States. The result of the initial experiment was so bad, however, owing to the introduction of a final clause, the responsibility of which is now openly acknowl- edged by the Japanese officials, that proceedings were stayed. Meanwhile an erroneous step is alleged to have been taken by the Japanese envoy at London, who either originated or con- sented to the scheme for a general convention in that city, not to re-ar- range the terms of the treaty, but simply to alter the scale of custom duties. The Japane- se government was opposed to such partial and imperfect revision, consequently the movement is repudiated, and arrangements are now in progress for a complete revision in Tokyo, proceedings to begin this sum- mer. No important results are hoped for, Japan having unfortunately be- trayed weakness and fear to confront the European states boldly by append- ing a conditional clause to the Ameri- can treaty. The course of the Japane- se foreign office is far from frank throughout the transactions. The ex- istence of the qualifications clause was long concealed from the United States legation here, then owing probably to irritation produced attempts made to attribute it to out- side influence and the agency finally found necessary to make a frank avowal with reference to a statement in the New York Times, by Washing- ton correspondence, that the clause in question, was inserted at the instance of Secretary Evarts, desires to say that the Japanese foreign minister has publicly assumed all authority and Gasinda, late ambassador to Washington, declares that if any blame is attached to Secretary Evarts, it must not be charged with it inasmuch as the proposition came from him. Yoshi- hida, under instructions from Tokyo, and methods now pursued by the Japane- se authorities, considered by many as a somewhat dubious secret, negoti- ations being in progress with certain legations, which is given out that here- after discussions are to be open and common to all general diplomatic opinion. Japan missed a fine opportunity by its half way opera- tions with the United States. The Russian and Italian representatives undisguisedly deplore the failure. All attached to English interests naturally rejoice over it. The Chinese envoy in Japan has been recalled by Tsung Li Yanien. Mismanagement of the discus- sion on the Zoo Choo subject and the failure to proclaim and assume a dignified attitude enjoin upon him a new local adminis- tration of Zoo Choo, as the Japanese prefecture was accepted without re- monstrance by the people. The change was effected quietly. The British minister has issued a circular letter requesting the opinions of the English consuls and merchants as to changes in the treaty affecting their interests, and inviting suggestions of the modifications required. Mexican dollars continue at a premium of 25 percent over Japanese money. The premium is merely nominal, with no buyers or sellers except of trifling amounts. Counterfeit treasury, 2 yen notes, are largely circulated and are believed to be executed abroad and introduced through the foreign mails. The imperial residences in various cities are undergoing preparation for occupation by Gen. Grant.

BALTIMORE RACES.

There were twelve starters for the Rancho handicap, one and one-eighth mile, all ages, and the race was easily won by Hattie F., a rank outsider who had hardly been considered in the contest; Florida 2d, Bushwhacker 3d, Stard 4th, and Bonnie Wood, who was the call in pools for seventy, 5th. FINE ART.

Colcord's Autumn Leaves.

We to-day had the rare opportunity of seeing one of the prettiest evidences of real artistic taste in a picture just finished by Mr. Henry Colcord, who has been in the city during the greater part of last year.

Mr. Colcord has just finished a picture of Gracie Bass, the little daughter of John H. Bass. It is a life-sized picture of the pretty little miss, who, after the return from the gathering of autumn leaves in a park with a basket full at her side, is looking to ward the house from which she is supposed to be seen. The park, in all its details, so perfectly painted as to at once suggest the landscape painter in Mr. Colcord. Yet, in spite of this, he has never lost sight of the fact that the portrait is the principal object in the entire design, and has painted a speaking likeness of Miss Gracie. Her posture, the dress, and above all the face, are so admirably drawn, that Mr. and Mrs. Bass can not but feel the kindest delight in the possession of so perfect a gem. Mr. Colcord has painted a number of pictures for our citizens, all of which have been pronounced very fine by those who have given some study to this branch of art, and we hope he will continue to meet with such success as to insure his prolonged stay among us.

Esselliah. A prominent horse man of our city said this morning: "I don't believe in everybody giving Ed. Waud thunder. I believe he felt as bad as any one that his horse got left at the post, and I think he did the best he could."

Esselliah's record compares well with any other horse's record on the American turf.

Parole's best record was made at Saratoga, July 20th, 1877, distance 1 1/2 miles, time, 2:10, and at Saratoga, July 25th, 1877, same distance 2:12 1/2, which is the same time that Esselliah made in a race this spring in the south. His record in 1 1/2 mile races also compares well with that of Parole, who is the acknowledged king of the running turf.

Restoration of Reason. Our readers will remember the sad case of W. J. Bond, son of the Fairfield avenue druggist, who was sent to the state insane hospital about eight months ago in a state of complete lunacy. He had been married but a few weeks. Bond has been entirely cured, and discharged from the hospital. He arrived at home yesterday. His health is very good, and his reason seems to be entirely restored.
